

VARSITY PUTS UP REMARKABLE GAME

Walker Pitches No-Hit Battle, and Colgate Fails to Reach First.

HAS ERRORLESS SUPPORT

Speedy Southpaw Astonishes Spectators by His Wonderful All-Round Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARTERSVILLE, Va., March 30.—Virginia made it two straight from Colgate by winning today's game, 3 to 0.

Despite the cold wind which blew across the field, the contest was the prettiest seen here this season. It was a rare battle of pitchers, and the fielding was almost perfect, the only error made being by the visiting right-fielder, who dropped Walker's first liner.

Carl Walker, of Richmond, Virginia's star twirler, again made a record for himself by pitching a no-hit game. Only twenty-seven batters faced him in the nine innings, and not a single one reached first base. Thirteen of the New Yorkers were retired on strikes. To cap the climax the clever southpaw astonished the spectators by stealing home in the eighth inning.

Colgate had in a gem of a twirler, Buck, who played a star game yesterday at second base. The tall right-hander fanned fourteen of the Virginia batsmen. At the very outset he showed his skill by retiring five of the first half-dozen men who faced him. He fielded faultlessly, getting all the assists but two.

Of the three hits secured off his delivery two were made by Captain Hoff. Honaker scored the first run in the fourth inning. He was passed to first, went to second on a neat sacrifice by Blakeney and tallied on Hoff's timely hit to center. In the seventh Hoff dropped a fly back of first base, was sacrificed to second by Fitchett and romped home on Cabaniss's liner to center. Walker reached first in the eighth, went to second on Honaker's sacrifice and stole home, while Hoff was at the bat.

Plays Inside. Virginia played a brilliant baseball game throughout. In fielding there was not the semblance of an error. In the eighth Blakeney robbed Buck of a hit by swooping up the big twirler's first grounder and tossing the ball to center. Colgate left tonight for Raleigh to meet Agricultural and Mechanical College. Virginia plays Amherst Thursday. Today's score:

CASTLE HILL HOUNDS.

Going Is Deer, But Field Finishes Well With Hounds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) COBHAM, Va., March 30.—Castle Hill hounds met today at the kennels. The pack was taken to Keswick Farm, the Page estate, where hounds quickly found and went away well together to Turkey Mountain Gap, across Brydens, Dowells, Downers, through Carter's to Wilkie's, where the fox went to earth.

Those riding were Mrs. Allen Potts, M. F. H., on Willow King; Galtman, first whip, on Robin Gray; Billy King, second whip, on Billy Bright; Mrs. Joslin on Princess, Mr. Joslin on Easter Sunday, Mr. Murphy, of New York, on Skyrocket, Mr. Lanahan, of Baltimore, on Bright Boy, Mr. Abel, of Baltimore, on Pretty Maid, and Mr. Zim, of Orange county, on Bonnhill.

The going was deep, and mud sadly splattered pink coats, but all those riding kept well up with the hounds.

NEITHER PITCHER STRUCK OUT MAN

Remarkable Game of Baseball Is Played at Chapel Hill.

TABLES ARE TURNED

North Carolinians Take Revenge for Defeat by Amherst Team.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 30.—The University of North Carolina evened up with Amherst here today by defeating that team 7 to 6. The game was remarkable in that neither pitcher struck out a single man. Duncan, for Carolina, got three hits out of three times up. Duis, backed up by splendid support, held Amherst practically harmless up to the ninth. After the Northerners had secured four runs by a beautiful batting rally Stewart went in and stemmed the tide for Amherst.

The batting of Vernon and the fielding of Duke were features. The fielding of Armstrong, Winn and Duncan, for Carolina, was spectacular. Score by Innings: R. H. E. Amherst.....000002004—6 8 3 Carolina.....330202007—7 6 3 Batteries: McInerney and Henry; Duis, Stewart and Moore. Umpires, Wrenn and Moore.

Morningstar Leads Field.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Ora C. Morningstar, formerly of Rochester, Ind., but now a resident of New York, won his fourth consecutive game tonight in the International 12 championship billiard tournament, defeating A. G. Cutler, of Boston, 100 to 210.

Morningstar leads the field, not having met with a setback since the start. In the afternoon Harry P. Cline, of Philadelphia, won, defeating Louis Cure 590 to 437.

HOWITZERS' QUINT IS SNOWED UNDER

Soldiers Are No Match for Y. M. C. A. Five, Final Count Being 48 to 9.

Putting up one of the prettiest exhibitions of team work seen here this season, the Young Men's Christian Association basketball team completely outclassed the Howitzers' five last night on the armory floor. The final count being 48 to 9. From the blowing of the whistle for the start of the first half, the association players were never headed, and put up a fine game both on the offensive and defensive.

The Young Men's Christian Association men had little trouble in getting through the opposing guards, and shot from difficult angles at ease. Van Sant won a well deserved round of applause in the first period, when after a hard fight at the basket, he finally landed a neat shot from kneeling position on the floor. Cullen also came in for a share of the cheering by dropping one in the basket after three attempts, the ball bounding back into his hands on each trial. At the close of the first half the score stood 19 to 1 in favor of the Young Men's Christian Association quint.

In the second round the artillerymen seemed to find themselves at spare moments and did some good passing, but were sorely handicapped by inability to shoot after working the ball to within striking distance of the goal. The association men covered well, besides playing a good all-around game. The Howitzers failed to show up in as good form as they have been able to muster on previous occasions, but displayed spurts of fast work at times.

Every member of the winning five was credited with no less than four points. Thornton and Lawrence scoring the majority of the forty-eight. Tucker, Rowe and Cook were the principals in tallying for the Howitzers. Line up:

Y. M. C. A. Position: Howitzers, Cullen..... forward.....Tucker Thornton..... forward.....Nickels Van Sant..... centre.....Cook Lawrence..... guard.....Rowe (Captain)..... guard.....Flaxler Field goals: Thornton, 8; Cullen, 5; Van Sant, 5; Lawrence, 4; Wells, 2; Rowe, 2; Tucker, goals from foul—Lawrence, 3; Tucker, Cook, Points awarded—Thornton, 1; Cook, 1; Foul called—on Y. VETERAN CATCHER IS BACK IN TOWN

Tom Messitt Arrives in Richmond and Is Ready for Work.

ADDS STRENGTH TO TEAM

Colts Will Hold Final Practice To-Day Before Meeting Newark Squad.

Tom Messitt, the veteran catcher of the Champions, arrived in Richmond yesterday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock from Philadelphia, and he will turn out with the squad today for practice. The arrival of Messitt gives the Colts a strong catching department, as Burke and Kiesel, the new men, have shown up well.

The Colts will hold their final practice today in preparation for the series of three games with the Newark team, of the Eastern League, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday. "Iron Man" McGinnity, the former Giant flinger, who is managing the Newark team, will pitch one of the games here, and is expected to prove a big drawing card. The Newark team is a very fast one and Lippe's youngsters will have to go some to hold them in check. Of course, the Champs propose to take a game or two.

Bussey has been called to his home in Wilmington, N. C., on account of the illness of his wife, but he probably will return in time to pitch part of one of the games this week. All of the pitchers probably will be worked out in these games, and the fans will have an opportunity to get a line on the work of the new men.

The Champions put in four hours of work again yesterday, batting, fielding and throwing the ball around. The men are showing up in good form now and are ready for the frays with the Indians.

JIMMY ISON WILL SIGN WITH COLTS

With Return of Second Baseman, Infield of Champions Will Be Intact.

Jimmy Ison, second baseman of the Champion Colts last year, will play with the Colts again this season. Following the close of the season in 1938 he secured a position as city salesman in Richmond for a New Jersey tobacco company, and several weeks ago he told Manager Lippe that he would sign with the team this year, but would wait until the end of the season to see if his services were needed. Now, however, he has changed his mind, and according to reliable information, has resigned his job and will report for work the latter part of this week. With the return of Ison, the infield of the champions will be intact. Lippe, third baseman at short Ison at second, and Kanizer at first. Not including Sieber, who will report for work May 1, the Colts will have eight of last year's men back this season. Titman, Messitt, Revelle and Bussey being the other oldies. This season the prospects for a winning team, for Ison is a fast man and had a fine record last year, both in hitting and fielding.

LARD DEFEATED.

Champion Falls Before Clever Play of C. L. Becker. PINEHURST, N. C., March 30.—In today's first and second match rounds in the ninth annual United North and South Amateur Championship Golf Tournament, the southern features were the defeat of Allan Lard, of Chevy Chase, the championship titleholder, by C. L. Becker, of Woodland; and the victory of Harold Weber, of Inverness, over William C. Fowles, Jr., of Oakmont.

Both matches were won on the fourteenth green. Other brilliant matches included Mr. Fowles's defeat of William T. West, of the Philadelphia Country Club, in the morning round, the latter being down at the turn, and gaining the lead on the seventeenth, and winning with a half on the eighteenth. Walter Fairbanks, the Colorado champion, won from L. A. Hamilton, of Englewood, in the morning round, being down at the turn, and winning with a half on the eighteenth. STANDING UNCHANGED.

Steady Pace Is Maintained by the Bicycle Racers.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 30.—The five surviving teams in the six-day race at the Velodrome today grinded at 2:30 this afternoon. A steady pace was maintained during the first half of the race, with the teams at the end of the twelfth hour of riding being Root and Folger, Walthour and Collier, Cameron and Mitten, Williams and Mackay, 253 miles 4 laps. At the conclusion of the racing to-night the standing of the teams was unchanged from yesterday as follows: Root-Folger, Walthour-Colliers, Cameron-Mitten, Williams-Mackay, 233 miles 7 laps; Walthour-Colliers, 233 miles 6 laps. Lewis Strait went around the saucer-shaped twelve-lap track in his Buick racer three times without accident at breakneck speed.

NATIONALS WIN OUT.

Defeat Americans in Relay Race and Basketball Game.

In the athletic contest at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon the Canadians won an event from the Invincibles by a better average than their opponents. Riddell and Howe tied for first place with thirteen successful shots each. Riddell with thirteen, Miller with twelve. The Nationals took the relay race from the Americans, winning by the score of 15 to 8. The standing of the teams at present is:

CONDITIONS FINE FOR DAY'S CHASE

Long Drag Is Ridden and Event Ends With Hunt Breakfast.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WARRENTON, Va., March 30.—With the most favorable weather conditions possible the members of the Warrenton Hunt Club met at Woodburne, the home of Mrs. Isham Keith, and finished after a stiff run and many high fences and lines and out at Clifton, the home of Major R. P. Barry, where Mrs. Wilbur, of Philadelphia, gave a hunt breakfast to the riders and several guests in honor of Miss Wilbur, Miss Kemble and W. P. Wilbur, who have been hunting with the club this season. The men rode in colors, and the field, which was a large one, speeded along over a country that demanded much jumping.

Among those riding and finishing well up were the following: T. I. Evans, J. P. Evans, Harry Edmonds, W. P. Wilbur, C. H. Smith, J. D. Hall, P. E. Tyson, W. S. Sowers, T. F. Gallows, Charles Daniel, Harry Page and Mrs. Peter E. Labouisse. The drag was specialized this afternoon by the length, which was five miles, and by the check at Woodburne schoolhouse, where several riders joined in and finished.

WEATHER IDEAL, GANS'S RING DAYS SAID TO BE OVER

Several Long Shots Come In for First Money at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 30.—The third day's card at the Monierie race-track this afternoon was a good one. The weather was ideal and fully 4,000 persons journeyed in all classes of vehicles to witness the sport. Several long shots won, but many of the favorites came in for first money. The track was slow.

First race—five furlongs—Sudden Start (5 to 1) first, Melino (2 to 1) second, Tomochichi (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:15.

Second race—five and a half furlongs—Camel (6 to 1) first, Joe Erich (2 to 1) second, St. Aulaire (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:13-1-5.

Third race—five and a half furlongs—Variation (7 to 1) first, John Munroe (4 to 1) second, Rose Arkie (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:13.

Fourth race—seven furlongs—Boserian (3 to 1) first, Galileo (3 to 2) second, Hoorary (out) third. Time, 1:24.

Fifth race—one mile—Elystium (4 to 1) first, Joe Fallert (4 to 1) second, Wine Merchant (out) third. Time, 1:48-1-2.

Sixth race—six furlongs—Auspicious (5 to 1) first, Nettle Harita (4 to 1) second, Malving (3 to 2) third. Time, 1:19-4-5.

"MEDS" TRIM HOGE ACADEMY. Fair Rooters Assist "Sawbones" in Winning Close Game.

By some good work with the willow in the fifth inning the baseball team of the Medical College of Virginia defeated the Hoge Military Academy on the school grounds at Blackstone Monday afternoon by the score of 9 to 8. Four runs were nailed in the fifth, and the "Sawbones" had little trouble in keeping the lead after this rally. A bay of fair rooters from the Blackstone Female Institute kept the doctors at bay, but much of the credit for a victory is given the young ladies for their able support.

The batteries for the two teams were as follows: Haden and Dunford for Medical College; Sheppard and Jones for Hoge.

Will Meet Richmond. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., March 30.—Extensive preparations have been made for the first baseball game of the season, when, on Thursday of this week, Richmond College will cross bats with Davidson, a team from the college town in Mecklenburg county. A big crowd will be in Salisbury to witness the game. The grounds are being placed in fine condition for the contest.

NEWARK DEFEATS LYNCHBURG TEAM

Virginia Pitchers Suffer With Stage Fright When Professionals Appear.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, Va., March 30.—The Newark Eastern League team took the local Virginia League club into camp this afternoon, after this home team had the game well in hand. The locals used two amateurs who had never faced a team of professionals, although Griffin, formerly of Richmond College, showed fine ability. The weather was cold, and a high wind made the game uncomfortable for players as well as spectators, and all of the errors are charged up to the weather.

Score by Innings: R. H. E. Lynchburg.....140610000—8 6 6 Newark.....003200040—10 1 0 Batteries: Vernuelle, Griffin and Trevillian and Ross and Caul; Randolph and O'Drain and Reynolds and Fillman. Time, 1:33. Umpire, V. Accoraini.

An Exhibition Game.

The baseball team of the Richmond High School and the Richmond Academy will give an exhibition game at Broad Street Park this afternoon at 4 o'clock preparatory to the opening of the Inter-Preparatory League Friday afternoon. Both of the opposing teams have shown good form in the preliminary games, and the match this afternoon promises to be a fast one.

WEATHER IDEAL, GANS'S RING DAYS SAID TO BE OVER

Former Champion Has Tuberculosis and May Never Fight Again.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30.—Charles White, the well-known prize-fight referee, is quoted as saying Joe Gans, the Baltimore negro, who was for many years lightweight champion pugilist of the world, may never be seen in the ring again. He said that Joe has developed tuberculosis.

The statement, which was sent out by the Associated Press, is practically a corroboration of the report made about the time Joe was training for his last fight with Battling Nelson, who captured the championship honors from him. Reports were rife at that critical stage, when the eyes of all the sports of the country were upon Gans, that the wonderful colored fighter was in poor health.

It was said that Joe had been ordered to stop eating sweets, and the sports public became alarmed. But Gans fought Nelson a good battle, despite the fact that everyone who ever studied the boxer realized he was not at his best.

The last fight that Gans had was in New York recently, when he met James White, an English boxer of note. While Joe had all the better of the mill, he seemed slow to the experts. If it is true that he will never again do the padded mitts, the boxing game has lost one of its wonderful artists.

All the money that Gans won in his fights was not saved beneath a loose brick in the family hearth. Joe has always been a sport. He has squandered a great deal of coin. He spent a large sum erecting the hotel he conducts at Lexington and Chestnut Streets.

Gans's wife said last night that Joe has not tuberculosis and that she has the word of his physician, Dr. John G. Jay, for it. She said Joe has had a heavy cold and that his trouble about a liquor license has worried him considerably. Moreover, she said his fight with White had not done him any good, as his seconds had poured ice water on him. But the wife said Gans is now in a Petersburg theatre giving boxing exhibitions. She said the reason he was not at his best in his last fight was because he was unable to do any outdoor training, owing to the weather and the attention his liquor license troubles demanded.

At Hartford, who looked after Gans's interests in the ring for so many years, said that he had not heard that Joe had tuberculosis. But Hartford admitted that Gans had been advised to take a rest, and that the fighter is preparing to do so.

Moreover, he said, Joe would go somewhere in the mountains to take
